HEAR FROM OUR SATISFIED MEMBERS

Oliver Yates | Country Head of Gaw Capital Partners

The SEC has continually demonstrated excellence in the leading role it plays to support the renewable energy industry. Its understanding of the sector and the level of its relationships ensure it can provide timely assistance to both members and policy makers to assist Australian achieving an efficient and effective transition to an electrified low carbon future.

Lauren Reid | Communications & Engagement Lead - Energy Transition, SA Power Network

The Smart Energy Council, through its advocacy, roadshows and events, helps us connect with the industry as a whole to bring them on the journey of continuing to support ongoing CER integration.

Luke Beattie | Channel manager - iStore home iStore is a proud member of the Smart Energy Council, whose strong, hands-on support drives the industry forward—championing everyone from boardrooms to the rooftops.

Lauren Hamilton | Head of Marketing and Director, Smart Commercial Solar & AWISE

For us, the value lies in access to policy, to regulations - being always kept informed and having access to those important voices in our industry that are advocating for what matters to us. Bringing all those different threads of the industry together is what the Smart Energy Council do particularly well.
